- On completion of the semester, you will receive a certificate of attendance :
 - The level at which you attended the course
 - The total number of class hours taken at this level
- This French course allows you to earn credits, according to the agreement of your Doctoral School. Validated credits require a certain percentage of class hours to be taken.
- To guarantee progress, you must attend every lesson as per the agreement with your Doctoral School. Registration constitutes an agreement with :
 - the Doctoral School which finances this course
 - your French course teacher
- You have to prevent in advance by email of any absence in upcoming lessons. The Doctoral School may not renew your enrollment in the subsequent semester (your absences should be judged excessive). You have to notify the course administrator if you don't wish (or aren't able) to attend the course anymore.
